

Blissful Thai Wedding Package
(Maximum 60 guests)
THB 45,000 nett

(inclusive of service charge and applicable tax)

Personal wedding planner assistance
Romantic in-room floral decoration on the wedding night
Resort's wedding certificate (non-legal document)
Thai Wedding Ceremony, inclusive of the following arrangements

=====

Monk Blessing Ceremony

Buddhist monks are invited to attend the ceremony to bless the bride and groom and enable them to make merit

Khan Mak (Engagement Tray) Procession

Khan Mak parade is an essential part of wedding traditions where the groom and his family are required to lead the parade carrying valuable items and cash to the bride's house.

"Rod-Nam-Sang" or Water Blessing Ceremony

"Rod Nam" (pouring water) signifies cleansing and transferring of luck, and "Sang" (conch shell) symbolizes a source of good.

"Rod Nam Sang" or Water Blessing Ceremony

brings together the bride and groom for guests to bestow the blessings by pouring water from the conch shell over the couple's hands and wish them happiness and prosperity.

=====

Buddhist altar with amenities and raised platform for monks
Ceremony station decorated with fabric and floral designs
Water blessing altar with flower decoration
Wedding garlands for bride and groom
1 corsage for Groom
4 corsages for special guests

